SENATE BILL No. 354

DIGEST OF INTRODUCED BILL

Citations Affected: IC 27-4-1-4.5; IC 34-51-1-4.

Synopsis: Civil action for unfair claim settlement practices. Allows a person to file a civil action for damages related to an unfair claims settlement practice. Specifies the manner in which payment of certain damages must be made.

Effective: July 1, 2007.

Waterman

January 16,2007, read first time and referred to Committee on Corrections, Criminal, and Civil Matters.

y

First Regular Session 115th General Assembly (2007)

PRINTING CODE. Amendments: Whenever an existing statute (or a section of the Indiana Constitution) is being amended, the text of the existing provision will appear in this style type, additions will appear in this style type, and deletions will appear in this style type.

Additions: Whenever a new statutory provision is being enacted (or a new constitutional provision adopted), the text of the new provision will appear in this style type. Also, the word NEW will appear in that style type in the introductory clause of each SECTION that adds a new provision to the Indiana Code or the Indiana Constitution.

Conflict reconciliation: Text in a statute in this style type or this style type reconciles conflicts between statutes enacted by the 2006 Regular Session of the General Assembly.

C

SENATE BILL No. 354

A BILL FOR AN ACT to amend the Indiana Code concerning insurance.

p

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

У

SECTION	1. IC	27-4-1-4.5	IS	AMENDED	TO	READ	AS FOLLOWS [E	EFFECT	TIVE JULY 1	1,20	007]: Sec. 4.5.	(a) T	he follow	ving
are unfair clai	m settle	ement praction	ces:

- (1) Misrepresenting pertinent facts or insurance policy provisions relating to coverages at issue.
- (2) Failing to acknowledge and act reasonably promptly upon communications with respect to claims arising under insurance policies.
- (3) Failing to adopt and implement reasonable standards for the prompt investigation of claims arising under insurance policies.
- (4) Refusing to pay claims without conducting a reasonable investigation based upon all available information.
- (5) Failing to affirm or deny coverage of claims within a reasonable time after proof of loss statements have been completed.
- (6) Not attempting in good faith to effectuate prompt, fair, and equitable settlements of claims in which liability has become

5

6

7

8

9

10

11 12

13

14

15

16

17

2007

reasonably clear. (7) Compelling insureds to institute litigation to recover amounts due under an insurance policy by offering substantially less than the amounts ultimately recovered in actions brought by such insureds. (8) Attempting to settle a claim for less than the amount to which a reasonable individual would have believed the individual was entitled by reference to written or printed advertising material accompanying or made part of an application. (9) Attempting to settle claims on the basis of an application that was altered without notice to or knowledge or consent of the insured. (10) Making claims payments to insureds or beneficiaries not accompanied by a statement setting forth the coverage under which the payments are being made. (11) Making known to insureds or claimants a policy of appealing from arbitration awards in favor of insureds or claimants for the purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration. (12) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable due under an insurance policy by offering substantially less than the amounts ultimately recovered in actions brought by such insureds. (8) Attempting to settle a claim for less than the amount to which a reasonable individual would have believed the individual was entitled by reference to written or printed advertising material accompanying or made part of an application. (9) Attempting to settle claims on the basis of an application that was altered without notice to or knowledge or consent of the insured. (10) Making claims payments to insureds or beneficiaries not accompanied by a statement setting forth the coverage under which the payments are being made. (11) Making known to insureds or claimants a policy of appealing from arbitration awards in favor of insureds or claimants for the purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration. (12) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable
the amounts ultimately recovered in actions brought by such insureds. (8) Attempting to settle a claim for less than the amount to which a reasonable individual would have believed the individual was entitled by reference to written or printed advertising material accompanying or made part of an application. (9) Attempting to settle claims on the basis of an application that was altered without notice to or knowledge or consent of the insured. (10) Making claims payments to insureds or beneficiaries not accompanied by a statement setting forth the coverage under which the payments are being made. (11) Making known to insureds or claimants a policy of appealing from arbitration awards in favor of insureds or claimants for the purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration. (12) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable insureds. (8) Attempting to settle a claim for less than the amount to which a reasonable individual would have believed the individual was entitled by reference to written or printed advertising material accompanying or made part of an application. (9) Attempting to settle claims on the basis of an application that was altered without notice to or knowledge or consent of the insured. (10) Making claims payments to insureds or beneficiaries not accompanied by a statement setting forth the coverage under which the payments are being made. (11) Making known to insureds or claimants a policy of appealing from arbitration awards in favor of insureds or claimants for the purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration. (12) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable
(8) Attempting to settle a claim for less than the amount to which a reasonable individual would have believed the individual was entitled by reference to written or printed advertising material accompanying or made part of an application. (9) Attempting to settle claims on the basis of an application that was altered without notice to or knowledge or consent of the insured. (10) Making claims payments to insureds or beneficiaries not accompanied by a statement setting forth the coverage under which the payments are being made. (11) Making known to insureds or claimants a policy of appealing from arbitration awards in favor of insureds or claimants for the purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration. (12) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable
a reasonable individual would have believed the individual was entitled by reference to written or printed advertising material accompanying or made part of an application. (9) Attempting to settle claims on the basis of an application that was altered without notice to or knowledge or consent of the insured. (10) Making claims payments to insureds or beneficiaries not accompanied by a statement setting forth the coverage under which the payments are being made. (11) Making known to insureds or claimants a policy of appealing from arbitration awards in favor of insureds or claimants for the purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration. (12) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable entitled by reference to written or printed advertising material accompanying or made part of an application. (9) Attempting to settle claims on the basis of an application that was altered without notice to or knowledge or consent of the insured. (10) Making claims payments to insureds or beneficiaries not accompanied by a statement setting forth the coverage under which the payments are being made. (11) Making known to insureds or claimants a policy of appealing from arbitration awards in favor of insureds or claimants for the purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration. (12) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submissions of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable accompanying or made part of an application. (9) Attempting to settle claims on the basis of an application that was altered without notice to or knowledge or consent of the insured. (10) Making claims payments to insureds or beneficiaries not accompanied by a statement setting forth the coverage under which the payments are being made. (11) Making known to insureds or claimants a policy of appealing from arbitration awards in favor of insureds or claimants for the purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration. (12) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable
(9) Attempting to settle claims on the basis of an application that was altered without notice to or knowledge or consent of the insured. (10) Making claims payments to insureds or beneficiaries not accompanied by a statement setting forth the coverage under which the payments are being made. (11) Making known to insureds or claimants a policy of appealing from arbitration awards in favor of insureds or claimants for the purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration. (12) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable was altered without notice to or knowledge or consent of the insured. (10) Making claims payments to insureds or beneficiaries not accompanied by a statement setting forth the coverage under which the payments are being made. (11) Making known to insureds or claimants a policy of appealing from arbitration awards in favor of insureds or claimants for the purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration. (12) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable insured. (10) Making claims payments to insureds or beneficiaries not accompanied by a statement setting forth the coverage under which the payments are being made. (11) Making known to insureds or claimants a policy of appealing from arbitration awards in favor of insureds or claimants for the purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration. (12) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable 13 (10) Making claims payments to insureds or beneficiaries not 14 accompanied by a statement setting forth the coverage under 15 which the payments are being made. 16 (11) Making known to insureds or claimants a policy of appealing 17 from arbitration awards in favor of insureds or claimants for the 18 purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises 19 less than the amount awarded in arbitration. 20 (12) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring 21 an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a 22 preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent 23 submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which 24 submissions contain substantially the same information. 25 (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become 26 reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy 27 coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of 28 the insurance policy coverage. 29 (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the 30 basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable accompanied by a statement setting forth the coverage under which the payments are being made. (11) Making known to insureds or claimants a policy of appealing from arbitration awards in favor of insureds or claimants for the purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration. (12) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable which the payments are being made. (11) Making known to insureds or claimants a policy of appealing from arbitration awards in favor of insureds or claimants for the purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration. (12) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable
(11) Making known to insureds or claimants a policy of appealing from arbitration awards in favor of insureds or claimants for the purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration. (12) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable from arbitration awards in favor of insureds or claimants for the purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration. (12) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration. (12) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable less than the amount awarded in arbitration. (12) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable
less than the amount awarded in arbitration. (12) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable
an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable
an insured, a claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable submissions contain substantially the same information. (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable
25 (13) Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become 26 reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy 27 coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of 28 the insurance policy coverage. 29 (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the 30 basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable reasonably clear, under one (1) portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable
the insurance policy coverage. (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable 29 (14) Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable 1 ,
law for denial of a claim or for the offer of a compromise 32 settlement.
33 (15) In negotiations concerning liability insurance claims, 34 ascribing a percentage of fault to a person seeking to recover from an insured party, in spite of an obvious absence of fault on the part of that person.
37 (16) The unfair claims settlement practices defined in 38 IC 27-4-1.5.
39 (b) Notwithstanding section 18 of this chapter, a person that 40 suffers a pecuniary loss as a result of the commission of a practice specified in subsection (a) may bring a civil action against the 42 person that caused the loss for all of the following:

1	(1) An amount not to exceed two (2) times the actual damages
2	of the person that suffered the loss.
3	(2) Costs related to the civil action.
4	(3) Reasonable attorney's fees.
5	(c) If a plaintiff in a civil action under subsection (b) obtains a
6	judgment for an amount described in subsection (b)(1) that exceeds
7	the amount of the plaintiff's actual damages, the defendant against
8	which the judgment is entered shall pay the amount that exceeds
9	the plaintiff's actual damages, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees
10	to the clerk of the court where the action is pending.
11	(d) Upon receiving a payment described in subsection (c), the
12	clerk of the court shall do all of the following:
13	(1) Pay to the plaintiff seventy-five percent (75%) of the
14	payment received under subsection (c).
15	(2) Pay the remaining twenty-five percent (25%) of the 16	payment received under subsection (c) to the treasurer of
17	state who shall deposit the funds in the violent crime victims
18	compensation fund established by IC 5-2-6.1-40.
19	SECTION 2. IC 34-51-1-4 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE
20	AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY
21	1, 2007]: Sec. 4. Double damages in civil actions for unfair claim
22	settlement practices are governed by IC 27-4-1-4.5.
23	SECTION 3. [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2007] IC 27-4-1-4.5, as
24	amended by this act, applies to a cause of action that arises after
25	June 30, 2007.
		V

